

Stanford Prison Experiment – Homework #3

Watch the video “Quiet Rage - the Stanford Prison Experiment” and answer the following using complete sentences and proper grammar:

1. Describe, in detail, the study and its findings.

2. What concepts in the text (CH 15) does this study relate to?

3. Were there ethical or methodological aspects of the study that make it less reliable? If so, explain what they are and why they are a concern.

4. Given the ethics of this study, would you choose to use this data for your research? Why or why not?

5. Give a current example of an event that this study applies to and explain how the event is similar or different from the study.

Grading Rubric

Criteria	Excellent (A) 5 points	Above Average (B) 4 points	Adequate (C) 3 points	Undeveloped (D) 2 points	Unsatisfactory (F) 1 point
Content	Content is accurate to the topic and provides insightful and complex connections beyond the base material.	Content is accurate to the topic and illustrates connections beyond the base material.	Content is accurate to the topic.	Content is inadequate or weak: required topics are lacking, missing, or misrepresented.	Content is incomplete: required topics are lacking, missing, or misrepresented.
Critical Thinking	Analysis or explanation of the evidence is precise with elaborative elements (often reaching beyond the topic matter).	Analysis or explanation of the evidence is precise and poignant.	Analysis or explanation of the evidence is adequate: not assumptive or superficial.	Analysis or explanation of the evidence is superficial or assumptive.	Little or no analysis or explanation of the evidence.
Social Responsibility and Application	Examples of the claims offered by the author are complex and pointed.	Examples of the claims offered by the author are complex without convolution to point.	Examples of the claims offered by the author are appropriate.	Examples of the claims offered by the author are confusing.	Examples do not support the claims offered by the author.
Mechanics	Structure of paper is logical and complete. Paragraphs are concise, relevant, and relatable to the topic.	Structure of paper is logical and complete. Paragraphs are concise, relevant, and relatable to the topic.	Structure of paper is logical and mostly complete. Paragraphs are concise and relevant, but may not be relatable to the topic.	Structure of paper is convoluted or logically flawed. Paragraphs are disjointed.	Paragraphs are unrelated.